As their project for Christmas they planned to furnish corsages, for the women, and cookies for the men and children patients at Torrance Memorial Hospital. They also plan to collect toys for the toy loan. If you have any toys that you would like to donate, call Helen Kimball of 6106 Reese Rd. at FR. 5-5169. If you are unable to leave them, she will see that they will be picked up.

PV College To Close for Thanksgiving

Because many resident students must travel great distances to go home for Thanksgiving, Palos Verdes College will be closed from after classes Tuesday to Sunday night, college officials announced. Thanksgiving dinner will be served to students and faculty in the college dining room Monday night. Faculty members will serve as waiters and waitresses for the occasion.

Students from the east or overseas have been invited to private homes in the vicinity for the holidays, so that no one is without an invitation.
